University of Nebraska-Lincoln Community and Regional Planning Assistant or Associate Professor

Applications are invited for a full-time, nine-month, tenure track assistant or associate professor position in the PAB-accredited Master of Community and Regional Planning (MCRP) program at the University of Nebraska–Lincoln (UNL), beginning in August 2016.

Required Qualifications: The selected candidate must hold a Ph.D. in Planning by the time of appointment. The successful candidate will be highly motivated, with demonstrated excellence in teaching and a track record in scholarly research.

The successful candidate also must be qualified and equipped to teach two or more courses, including a planning studio, in the required MCRP core curriculum and will be expected to teach one or more courses cross-listed with other programs in the College of Architecture (architecture, landscape architecture, and interior design) that are open to undergraduate and graduate students in the College of Architecture, as well as students from other academic programs at UNL.

Preferred Qualifications: Expertise and ability to teach in one or more of the following areas is preferred: land use planning; urban design; sustainable development; healthy communities; housing; social planning; transportation; economic development. A successful track record in obtaining external funding is expected. AICP certification is preferred.

The successful candidate will have demonstrated abilities and a desire to collaborate in interdisciplinary research, outreach, and teaching with faculty in the College of Architecture, as well as a desire to pursue collaborative work with faculty affiliated with centers and institutes in the University of Nebraska system (including campuses located in Omaha and Kearney), such as the Rural Futures Institute; Nebraska Public Policy Center; Center for Urban Sustainability; Social and Behavioral Sciences Research Consortium; Robert B. Daugherty Water for Food Institute; Nebraska Transportation Center; Minority Health Disparities Initiative; and others. Collaborative work with Nebraska state agencies is also desired. For further information about the College of Architecture and its constituent programs, go to http://architecture.unl.edu

Application deadline: Initial review of applications will commence on January 4, 2016. The position will remain open until a suitable candidate is selected.

Application requirements: To be considered for this position, please go to http://employment.unl.edu, requisition F_150239, and click on “Apply to this job.” Candidates should upload the specific submission requirements listed below:

1. A cover letter expressing interest in the position
2. A full curriculum vitae
3. Contact information for three references (please provide name, title, address, telephone number, and email)
4. Statement of teaching approach and interests, professional experience, and research interests and goals

You may also attach an e-portfolio demonstrating your qualifications for the position, which may include examples of recent scholarly publications, professional works, and teaching materials. This may include, but is not limited to: professional, scholarly, and creative work in practice or academia. To do this, you will be required upload into People Admin either an e-portfolio of no great than 10MB, if larger, you will be required to create a free user account at https://pathbrite.com to upload your portfolio. Once created and saved, please copy the specific URL of your portfolio and paste it into the e-portfolio area within your application at http://employment.unl.edu. If you have any questions regarding this process, please contact Lori Bennett Baumli at lori.bb@unl.edu or by telephone at 402-472-9215.

Questions regarding the position may be directed to:

Dr. Yunwoo Nam, Search Committee Chair
ynam2@unl.edu
Community and Regional Planning Program
University of Nebraska–Lincoln
302 Architecture Hall
Lincoln, NE  68588-0105

---

The University of Nebraska-Lincoln is committed to a pluralistic campus community through affirmative action, equal opportunity, work-life balance, and dual careers. See http://www.unl.edu/equity/notice-nondiscrimination.