

Interior Design Student Intern

Populous is a global architecture and design firm that creates the places where people love to be together, like Yankee Stadium, the London Olympics, and the Super Bowl. Over the last 30 years, the firm has designed more than 2,500 projects worth $40 billion across emerging and established markets. Populous' comprehensive services include architecture, interior design, event planning and overlay, environmental graphics and wayfinding, master planning, landscape design, urban planning and sustainable design consulting. With regional headquarters in Kansas City, London, and Brisbane, Populous has 17 offices on four continents.

We have openings for interior design student interns within our growing Interior Design group. We are seeking talented, enthusiastic, and technically proficient team members to train with us in a dynamic, creative design atmosphere. Applicants must possess exceptional design and technical abilities. Ideal candidates will have 0-3 years of experience.

Job Responsibilities:

The candidate will work within a dynamic creative environment, providing design and documentation in all aspects of the interiors process, in a variety of media formats.

Inventive, creative design thinking, collaborative skill, spatial and environmental design ability, branding development, story creation, and graphic design sensibility are required.

The candidate should be highly adaptable, having a diverse skill set and comfort level working in multiple media platforms. Capabilities should include illustration talents and computer generated renderings for visual communication of the conceptual idea.

Specific Skills:

- Working towards a Bachelor's or Master's degree in Interior Architecture or Interior Design from an accredited program.
- Proficiency in Revit, Photoshop, Illustrator and InDesign.
- Rendering experience, Vray or Lumion preferred.
- Strong sketching and freehand drawings skills. Ability to create quick sketches to convey/sell an idea is critical.
- Strong communication skills, team oriented, self-driven work ethic and ability to multi-task and meet fast paced project demands.
